RECRUITMENT OF PROBATIONARY OFFICERS
ADVERTISEMENT NO. CRPD/PO/2026-27/09 – CORRIGENDUM

With reference to above advertisement, it has been decided by the competent authority to remove the CIBIL clause from the recruitment advertisement of Probationary Officers (2026-27) with immediate effect. The details are as under:

EXISTING GUIDELINES	REVISED GUIDELINES
Refer Page No.5 Para 5 & Page No.12 Sr. No.32: CIBIL clause of the detailed advertisement, which is as under: Candidates who have defaulted in repayment under any lending arrangement with Banks / NBFCs / Financial Institutions, including credit card dues, and whose accounts reflect adverse credit history in CIBIL or any other recognized credit information agency, shall be required to regularize/repay all such outstanding dues on or before the date of joining the Bank. Candidates whose adverse credit status has not been updated in the records of CIBIL or other credit information agencies by the date of joining shall be required to either get the credit status updated or produce NOCs/documentary evidence from the concerned lender(s) confirming that there are no outstanding dues against them. Failure to regularize/repay such dues and submit satisfactory proof thereof on or before the date of joining shall render the candidate ineligible for appointment, and the offer of appointment shall be withdrawn/cancelled. Candidates are advised to check and confirm their CIBIL score/status before applying.	Clause Removed.

Candidates who have already registered for the post need not register again. All other terms and conditions mentioned in the captioned advertisement shall remain unchanged.
